Former CIA Official To Talk at Stark KSU

✓ "CIA Is a Necessity, Not an Evil" will be his topic when Thomas W. Braden, former Central Intelligence Agency official, speaks at 8 p.m. Friday at Stark County branch of Kent State University. The meeting will be public and branch students may attend free. Others may purchase tickets at the door. Mr. Braden was assistant from 1951 to 1955 of the late Allen W. Dulles, long time CIA director, and was co-author with Stewart Alsop of a history of the Army's OSS.
